Exam Review Sheet 9: Economic Cycles and the Labour Movement

• explain economic cycles with reference to the Great Depression and the labour movement in Canada	❑ relate the terms recession, depression, recovery, prosperity, deficit, inflation, and supply and demand to economic cycles ❑ describe the effects of and various responses to the Great Depression (e.g., unemployment, government intervention, protest parties, soup kitchens) ❑ relate economic cycles to the development of the labour movement (e.g., One Big Union, Winnipeg General Strike, On-to-Ottawa Trek, Regina Manifesto)

Recession

Depression

Recovery

Prosperity

Deficit

Inflation

Supply and Demand

Work camps (during Great Depression)

One Big Union

Winnipeg General Strike

On-to-Ottawa Trek

Regina Manifesto